A conference was held Monday aftercoon in Newark between a special commi tee of Newark Common Council and representives of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, in reference to existing differences between the city and said corporation. As on the previous occasion, the meeting was held with closed doors, but it was learned, after the adjournment that ex-Governor Bedle, who, at the first conference, promised to be ready with propositions to the city from the railroad company as a basis for the settlement of all existing disagreements, stated that he had been unable to put such propositions in form. A death in the family of President Sloan, and other unexpected events had occurred, which caused this delay. However, his company were in ernest in their proposition to come to some amicable understanding and would place before the Council committee the propositions for such an adjustment as soon as possible.

This announcement received by several Aldermen with misgivings as to the sincerity of the professions of the company's counsel, and they expressed themselves as opposed to any further delay, but the majority of the committee were in favor of extending to the representatives of the company further time in which to prepare their proposed basis of adjustment. Finally, it, was decided to give them until 10 o'clock on Friday to file their propositions with the City Clerk, and to call another special meeting of Council to consider them on the evening of that day. In the meantime, however, the City Council was directed to continue his preparation for the trial of the suit now pend ing in the United States Supreme Court, which is set down for Monday next.

Signed by the Governor. Governor Green signed, among others, the following bills: House No. 325, Relative to police service in townships; House No. 353, Giving the State Dairy Commissioner control over food and drugs; House No. 186, Relative to interstate estates : Senate No. 138, Appropriating $100,000 for enlargement of the Trenton Lunatic Asylum : Senate No. 151, Relative to Chosen Freeholders in boroughs; Senate No. 63, For five additional factory Inspectors; House No. 368, Permitting outside accident accident insurance companies to do business in this State; House No. 194, Granting female suffrage at school district elections; House No. 79, Relative to evidence: House No. 374, To prevent the sale of stamped beer bottles; House No. 312, Condit's lunatic transportation line; House No. 668, Making the first Monday in September a legal holiday; House No. 156, Relative to public libraries; House No 28, Making 12 hours a legal day's work for herse car employees, with half an hour for meals; Senate No. 157, Permitting foreign corporations to hold mortgages in this State for the transaction of necessary

Judge Depue having refused to appoint commissioners to condemn the right of way for the poles of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company's poles on Park avenue, the residents of that avenue appeared at the Township Committee meeting, Monday evening, with a petition asking for the immediate removal of the poles, which the telephone company had erected there without permission. Mr. Hamilton Wallis appeared as spokesman for the petitioners, and insisted that it was the committee's duty to cause the poles to be immediately removed. Township Counsel Adams held to his opinion, previously given, that the whole question hinged upon one thing: Whether the township was a leagally incorporated town within the meaning of the general telegraph law. If it was not, then they could not legally remove the poles. There was a long legal battle between Mr. Adams' and Mr. Wallis, in which the members of the Town Committee and the citizens took part. Finally, Mr. Wiley moved that the Road Committee-be instructe to remove the poles to-day. Mr. Jones wanted the"

motion amended so that the committee would act only upon the advice of the Counsel. This amendment was lost by a vote of six to three, Messrs, Smith, Coyne and Jones in the affirmative and then the original motion to remove the poles was carried, Mr. Jones alone voting in the

The Spiral Weld Tube Company, which was incorporated last December, and are now carrying on operations at Green Point, have purchased eight acres on Forest avenue, at the junction of the Watchung and D. L. & W. Railroads, and will soon commence the erection of factory buildings, to be of brick and to cover about two acres. The officers of the company are James C. Bayles, President: William S. Church, Secretary; Geo ge C. Hallett, Treasurer.

Livingston.

An extensive burglary occurred Monday night, at the residence of Silas B. Genung. The house adjoins the Livingston Church, and the pastor, Rev Alexander S. Bastain boards with the Genungs. At 7:30 all went to the church, leaving the house unoccupied. When they returned, about 8:-30, the house was found in the greatest disorder. The thieves had entered through a cellar window and forced their way up stairs and ransacked the house completely. Every closet and bureau in the house had been searched for valuables and a large amount of property was taken. Rev. M. Bastian lost every article of clothing that he possessed, except what he wore, even to his shoes. Pocketbooks belonging to Mr. Bastain and Mrs. Genung were taken, but they contained only small amounts of money.

Summit.

A stock company is being formed in Summit, the object of which is to introduce the electric light in that town. It is proposed to purchase a $20,000 plant.

Carscallen was elected President and Henry Betz Vice-President. The old Fifth Ward Savings Bank building, on Pavonia avenue, was purchased, and will be repaired for the new bank! A suit is being tried in the Hudson Circuit Court before Judge Kuapp, which will determine the resposibility of tenement house owners. J. B. Hyde, who was taking the school census last year, went into John Cook's house in Tonnele avenue and was seriously injured through a defect in the stairs. He is suing Cook for $5,000 damages.

Encourage Men to Own Homes. A man's first duties are to his family and himself. The State should not make those primary duties more difficult by taxing any of the necessaries of life. The necessity for the major portion of the enormous revenue needed by government arises from vice and folly in their various forms. The causes of taxation should bear the burden of taxation. All public revenues should be drawn from indirect taxes upon conduct and conditions more or less inimical to the general welfare. Luxuries, vices, follies, excessive wealth, and all conduct, eitner of citizens or foreigners, which tends to generate evil and injustice, should be taxed as far as practicable. Such a system of taxation would necessarily have a correlative effect, viz., the encouragement of virtuous acts by freeing them from public burdens. Instead of a policy which would make it impossible for any individual to ever become the absolute owner of a homestead -- that would make mankind more nomadic and lessen their interest in and affection for their homes-the State should encourage every man to get a piece of ground and a home of his own. To this end, all homesteads to a limited amount of value, should be exempt both from taxation and from attachment for debt. The tendency of such a measure would be silently to prevent and cure the evil of a monopoly of land by a comparatively few, as well as the evil of a tenant population with little interest in the soil upon which their toil and lives are spent .- John Philip Phillips,
